

General Manager: Macadamia, Avocado & Timber Farm
Levubu, Limpopo Province

We have a position available in the Levubu area of the Limpopo Province for an experienced and energetic person that have the ability and knowledge to manage the complete farming operations, including a nursery on the farm in a cost effective way, to optimise all production inputs, including the management of people, to ensure maximum fruit production, yield and profitability.

KEY PERFORMANCE AREAS:

- Ensuring the achievement of the financial and operational objectives in the business.
- Primary focus areas include the management of: production, packhouse, workshop, nursery, finances, health & safety, compliance and human resources.
- Monitor execution of all orchard management practices by subordinates and plan daily activities and ensure that all tasks are performed to acceptable standards
- Determine pest, insect and disease status and report to the MD and technical experts. Interpret and ensure the correct execution and monitoring and reporting on tree conditions.
- Responsible for irrigation scheduling and effective application of water and oversee general maintenance of irrigation equipment.
- Responsible for all picking activities and responsible for annual crop estimate.
- Responsible for workshop, fruit processing and packaging, administration and the nursery.
- Responsible for general financial administration, debtors and creditors
- Responsible to maintain discipline and performance standards, deal with grievances and other labour relations matters and determine labour requirements and maintain approved levels

REQUIREMENTS

1. A bachelor's degree in agriculture or general business management
2. 10 – 15 years' experience in a similar environment
3. Practical operational knowledge of the agricultural industry in general and fruit production in particular
4. Practical knowledge and skill in planning, organising, problem solving and control
5. Practical knowledge of compiling and controlling financial budgets
6. Proficient in management of people, process and systems
7. Practical knowledge of coaching and development of subordinates

Send CV's to Recruitment@tagafrica.co.za

Closing Date 29 February 2024